TESTIMONIALS

PARTICIPANTS

“I drove my family from California just to be apart of the live nativity scene. It was so well organized, fun and overall an absolutely amazing experience. We will definitely make this a new family tradition.” - Nadia C.

“The Living Nativity is such a blessing to serve at and what a sight to witness!”
- Jacqueline S.

“Living out the most pivotal event in all history is such a memorable and humbling experience” - Monique P.

“The Living Nativity allows the opportunity to reach the community by sharing the love of Jesus” - Janelle M.

On Christmas Eve our family participated in the Live Nativity Scene at Glittering Lights, even the little grandkids :). Great memory made! Thank you, Glittering Lights! - Pendleton and Friends

GUESTS

It's a holiday favorite! The live nativity at the end is amazing. - Savannah D.

We liked everything but I would have to say that the best thing about the whole experience is that the organizers included the true meaning of Christmas in the end, which is the birth of Christ. Thank you all!
- Hehas

Best was the LIVE NATIVITY at the end!
- Vasquez F.

Great family fun! Loved the Live Nativity this year at the end! - Doreen

Such a fun family tradition to go look at the lights...The icing on the cake was the live nativity scene at the end. They did a beautiful job I highly recommend this as a family activity. - Kirsti

This is such a neat family tradition! You all look so authentic! - LaRee

A total of 557 people volunteered their time to serve at the Living Nativity this year and more than 120,000 people viewed The Living Nativity at Glittering Lights.
